James Bond Theme Night

An evening in the secret world of James Bond from only £1475.00 Nationwide

Britain's number 1 action-adventure hero James Bond finally returned to the big screen for the 25th time in November 2021. Daniel Craig became the longest serving secret agent 007 of all time in "NO TIME TO DIE". In November 2022 James Bond celebrated his 60th Birthday, but who will take over as Britain's number 1 secret agent?

Join us in our capital city London and the headquarters of MI5 where we immerse ourselves into the secret world of James Bond before we take a short flight to Monaco and head to the Monte Carlo Casino, one of the finest and most opulent casinos in the world to try our luck at the gaming tables including blackjack and roulette. Craps and High stakes poker can be played in the VIP and private gaming lounge.

Your secret chosen headquarters for the evening will be totally transformed into the secret world of 007.

What's included?

Guns, gadgets, girls, fast cars and gambling !

The most popular and requested casino tables of blackjack and roulette presented in 007 imagery, professionally roped together with floral features and intimate lighting. The casino table layouts are customised with James Bond imagery creating the look and feel of an authentic casino. Additional tables including Texas Hold 'em featured in the movie Casino Royale, or the exciting game of craps can be hired at a cost of £325.00 per table including the professional and immaculately presented croupiers.

- Professional croupiers to deal for a duration of 2 hours within the night. The Bond theme is created prior to your guests arriving and removed when your celebration concludes.
- Casino Royale 1 million Dollar plaques for every guest to exchange for chips at the tables
- Casino Royale 007 archway greets guests as they arrive. The new item can be viewed in our image gallery below and will be a memorable long lasting first impression as guests pass under to gain entry to Casino Royale.

A night like no other in London

Escape to London and meet us at the MI5 headquarters where we will debrief on Bond's latest mission, or if you are looking for a more informal occasion meet us for a drink at Bond's favourite Chelsea high-end bar for a drink, martini, shaken not stirred of course.

Once we have taken time for a drink, the casino fun begins. Find the dazzling casinos of Monaco and Casino Royale here in Mayfair, London with a selection of blackjack and roulette tables that will entertain your guests for 2 hours, are you feeling lucky or are the chips against you?

Now we have run a few hands at blackjack & roulette, be sure to find some time to visit Bond at the VIP table with a selection of games including Craps & High stakes poker, and of course be sure to have your chips ready if you want to keep up with the big players here at the VIP table. Once you have had a chance to grow your chip count (or break even if you aren't feeling as lucky), it's time to de-brief on the night's luck with a Martini, shaken not stirred.
